Above all, we believe in making our practice a friendly, welcoming, patient-focused environment that our patients will feel comfortable and have confidence in. We like to think our name reflects our ethos. We believe in helping our patients through the whole dental journey, giving them the confidence to look ahead, smile and enjoy being here - a sense of calm 'infinity'.

And we pride ourselves on keeping the environment relaxed and welcoming - think a restful, beautiful 'blue'. But don't just take our word for it. Take a look at quotes from some of our valued patients highlighted throughout this guide. We hope these give you a sense of what the Infinityblu experience is all about.

ABOUT Infinityblu

Set up in 2007, Infinityblu is the realisation of Chris Barrowman's original vision, to create a friendly practice that prioritises patient care. Chris has managed to create a well-regarded dental 'hub', where all kinds of treatments are delivered, with exceptional care, to every member of your family.

Chris passionately believes in providing patients with excellence in customer service and dental care within a relaxed environment, giving patients the confidence and choice to experience the full range of treatment options dependent on their dental wishes and needs. As he explained, "Infinityblu is the essence of my belief in how dentistry should be practised. I want all my patients to be able to access the latest procedures and the highest quality of dental care provided with a patient-focused approach.", Chris Barrowman.
